Seeking Greatness . . .

Four years are spent in high school. During these years a student sets his goals for life and begins working toward them. Through varied opportunities students at Nocona High School are encouraged to find their most outstanding qualities and develop them. Not only does the individual benefit from his attempts but the standards of the entire student body are raised by each worthwhile contribution. Nocona High School's quality depends on the efforts of the individual. The multiple of these single efforts makes NHS great. It is our purpose on the following pages to show these individuals and groups "seeking greatness" for themselves and for Nocona High School as a whole.

The 1968 Annual Staff presents to you our finished pride and joy--The 1968 CHIEF. We have tried to catch glimpses here and there of the past year, so that in the years to come the activities of our 1968 school year will not dim and will not fade from memory. The theme of our annual this year is SEEKING GREATNESS. If you take an interest in reading each page, you will see that we have used words and pictures throughout the book to project our theme.

And now we invite you to enjoy reminiscing through the pages that follow.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The smooth operation of our school is the responsibility of our school board whom we owe an unlimited measure of gratitude. Although we often do not realize that they are working quietly "behind the scenes," our Board is at the head of the administrative functions of N.H.S.

Auxiliary Personnel

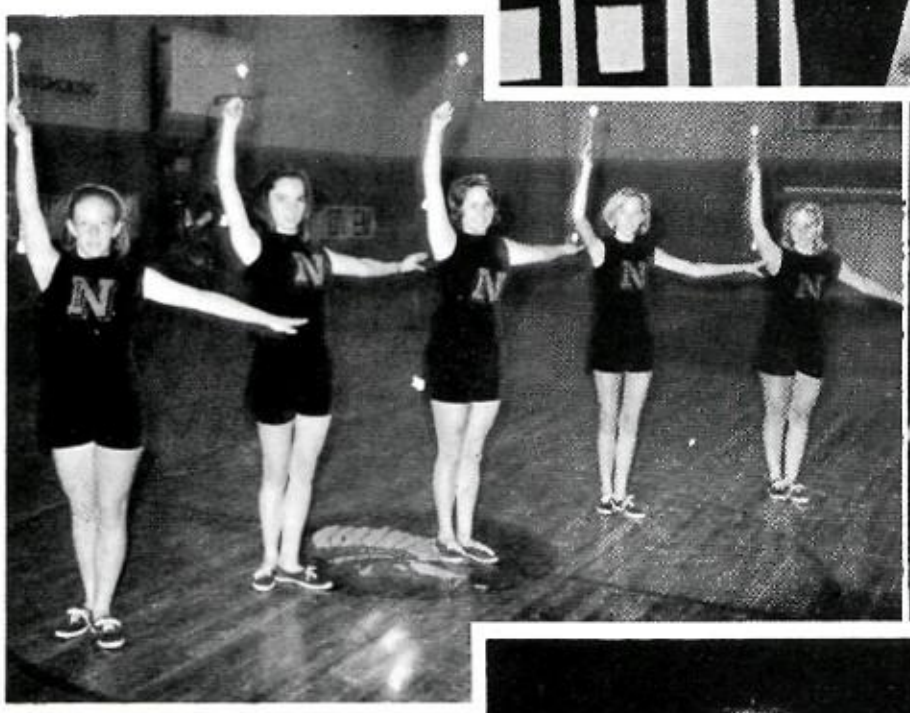
Transporting students of Nocona High School is the responsiblity of these bus drivers: Gene May, Jack Durham, Horace Priddy, Roy Hurley, and Leonard May.

Mr. Atkins, more than anyone else, holds the keys to our school.

Pep Rallies Great Fun!

Who really enjoys the greatness of football games, pep rallies, basketball games; the participant or the spectator?

Mr. Frank exemplifies Nocona High Spirit!



The majorettes play an essential part in each pep rally. Their routines provide color and entertainment to each pep rally.

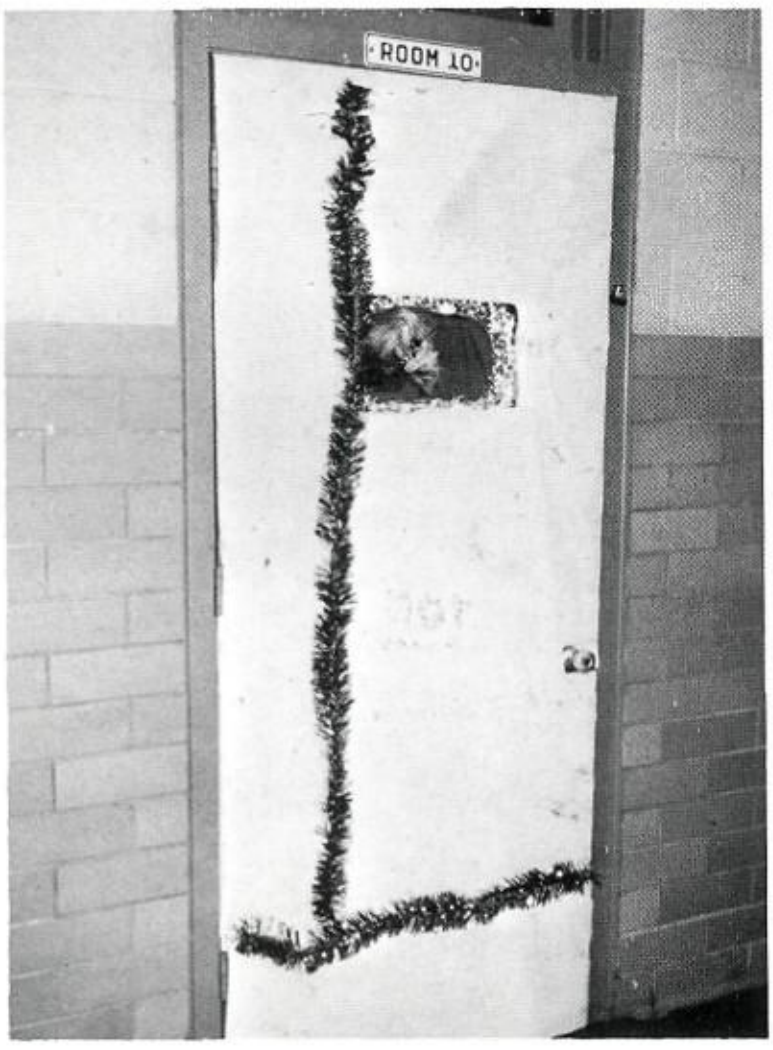
Our cheerleaders know the limit of participation. We sometimes take for granted the many hours they put in to cheer our team on and to lead our student body in each pep rally.

Coach Harrison explains to the student body that the success of a football game and of life is in the hands of its participants.

Christmas at N.H.S.

Personal pictures of the Junior Class extended "Seasons Greetings" to all and won first place.

Winning second place, the Student Council door conveyed the need for "Peace on Earth."



The Mu Alpha Theta combined their ingenuous skills and featured a window box with a revolving Santa on a sleigh. They captured third place honors.

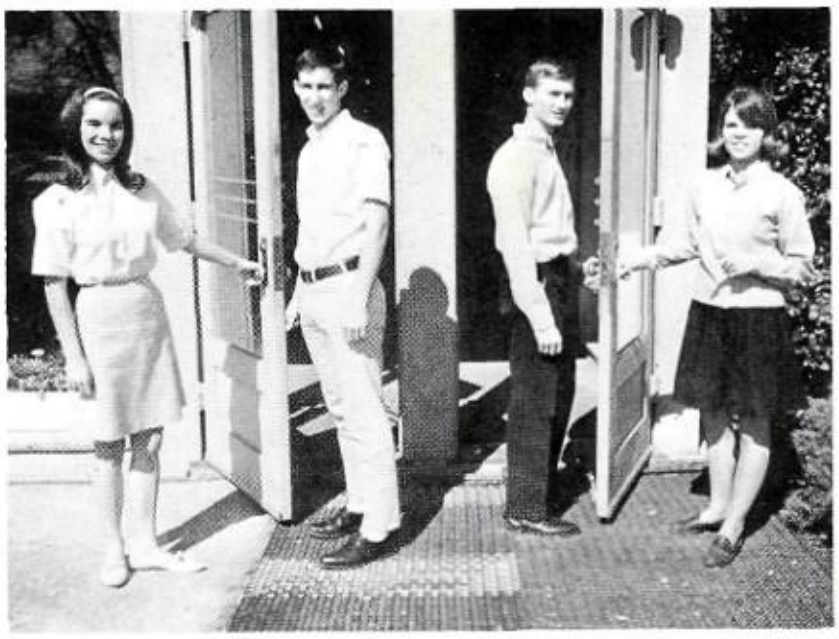
Achievement Tests??

Jimmy Nix and Mark Thomas seem to be having a "swinging" time with their dress - alikes, Jackie Yarbro and Martha Thompson.



Holly McCall and Diane Terry gallantly open the doors for Gary Sledge and Randy Duckworth.

DRESS - ALIKE DAY

Gayle Richardson seems glum about having to carry Ricky Martin's books.

The horses that Ronnie Hill and Rickey Yeargin are on need a little encouragement from Debbie Sharp and Barbara Sawyer.

Mike Leaf and Bobby Rainbolt seem well satisfied with the services rendered by Janet Russell and Darlene Molsbee.

It looks like Libby Fenoglio and Donna Davis are having a hard time pushing their look-alikes, David Sharp and Warren Sawyer.

TWIRP WEEK

The Student Council arranged traditional Twirp Week activities for the week to add a little spice to the school year. This year the coronation of the Valentine Sweetheart and Beau was held on Monday, allowing them to reign throughout the week. Other activities included: Dress-Up Day, Color Day, and Dress-Alike Day.

Roy Fitts and Lonnie Diehl tell dress-alikes Karen Nunneley and Marcia Atkins to "give it a whirl."

Joe A. Staley's and Kyle Kilcrease's hopes soar sky-high at the thought of Cindy Curlin and Debra Chapman paying for the dates.

In District competition: Jimmy Walker placed third in Imformative Speaking, and Jane Thomason placed third in Persuasive Speaking. Second-place winners were Joan Tompkins, Informative Speaking; and Cindy Curlin and Karen Fuller, Spelling. Gloria Foster, Mike Milburn, and Scott Bell made up the One-Act Play cast. Gloria placed on the All-Star cast.

PERENNIAL WINNERS

All of these students qualified to compete in the Regional Meet at Denton. This is the largest group we have ever sent to the Regional Contest. First Row: Jack McGaughey, 1st--Persuasive Speaking; Barbara Barr and Karen Nunneley, 1st--Girl's Debate; Glenna Fenoglio, Debbie Sharp, Mike Milburn, and Ronnie Hill, 1st--Girls' and Boys' Poetry and Prose; Second Row: Cathy Fenoglio--2nd and Holly McCall--1st, Typewriting; Susan Cardwell--2nd and Patsy Widlake--1st, Shorthand; Mike Ussery--1st--Debate and 2nd--Science; and Hall Wallis, Debate--1st and Number Sense--1st.

For the sixth straight year, Nocona won the District Literary Meet and regained possession of the Spring Trophy. The team compiled a total of 199 points, Jacksboro placing second with 69. This is a tribute to the ability of the students and faculty because of this great scoring advantage. Nocona also sent Holly McCall and Susan Cardwell to the State Literary Meet.

COUNCIL

One of the many tasks of the President and Vice President is to raise and lower the flag each day.

As chaplain, Jimmy Walker prepares for his duty of giving the morning devotional.

The four delegates to this year's state convention at San Antonio were Cheryl Thomas, Suzan Cardwell, June Cook, and Joe Staley.

GREAT ELECTIONS

Candidates for the Student Council offices were as follows: From left, Chaplain: Roy Fitts, Ronnie Hill, and Phil Barron; Parliamentarian: Norman Waters, Mike Brown, and Neal Meeks; Treasurer: Barbara Sawyer, Jimmy Walker, and Cathy Fenoglio; Secretary: Debbie Sharp, Suzan Cardwell, and June Cook; President: Rickey Yeargin, Jack McGaughey, and Joe A. Staley.

The 1968-69 Student Council officers are: President, Jack McGaughey; Vice-President, Joe A. Staley; Secretary, Suzan Cardwell; Parliamentarian, Mike Brown; and Chaplain, Phil Barron.

These characters are just a few that performed in the skits of the Student Council nominees. Among the famous personages performing were Cinderella, George Wallace, Prince Charming, and Bonnie and Clyde.

MU ALPHA THETA

To be eligible for membership in the Nocona Chapter of Mu Alpha Theta students are required to have a grade average of 85 in math and a grade average of 80 in all other courses.

New members: seated, Cathy Fenoglio, Barbara Sawyer, Jane Thomason; standing, June Cook, Jack McGaughey, Jimmy Walker, and Cheryl Thomas.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

FHA members enjoy many activities during the year. One of the highlights is the annual Christmas door decoration contest. The girls have won recognition or a prize every year. Added to the beauty of their decorations this year was a huge wreath made from remnants of material left from garments which were made in class.

The FHA officers seated left to right are: Shelly Sunderland, Secretary; Sandra Dennis, Treasurer; Betsy Keller, President; June Cook, Vice President; Susan Cardwell, Second Vice President; and Libby Fenoglio, Parliamentarian. Standing are: Diane Terry, Reporter; Gloria Foster, Jane Winningham, Cindy Curlin, Paula Admire, Songleaders; and Mrs. Thompson, Sponsor.

The homemaking girls presented their annual style show. These girls proudly model the garments that they made in homemaking. The Greek theme added to the beauty of the occasion.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR BOYS STUDYING VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE

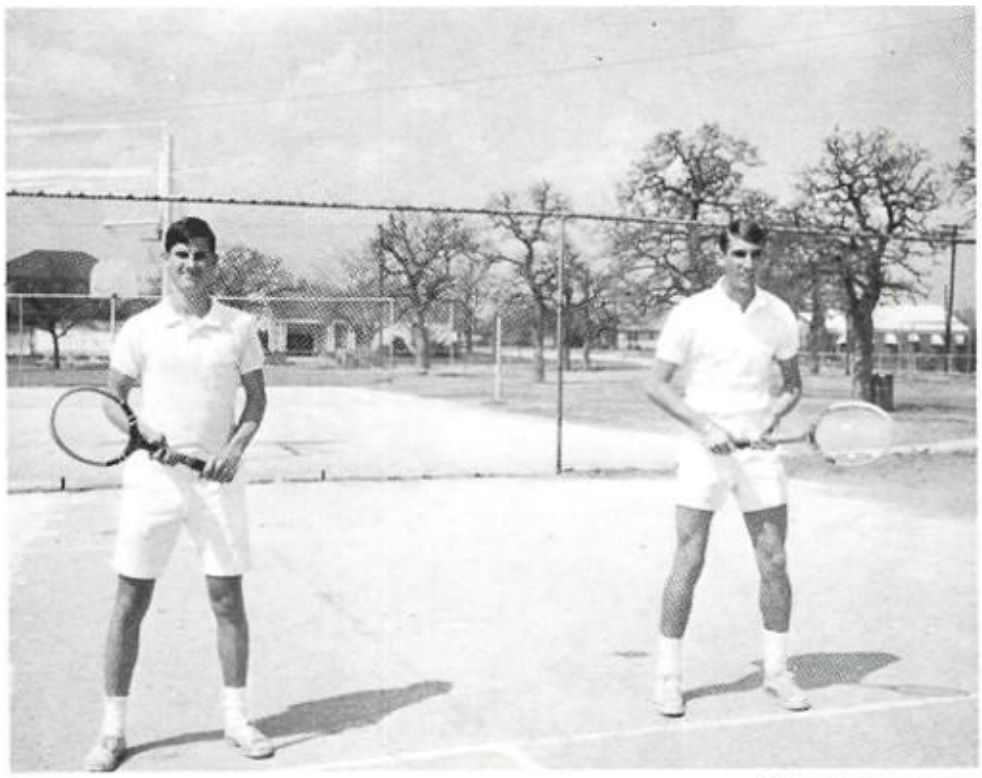
TENNIS



PHIL BARRON ROY C. FITTS

Roy C. Fitts and Phil Barron composed an invincible doubles team. They swept through District with ease and advanced to Regional at Denton. Groesbeck was the first opponent of the Fitts and Barron team. After easily winning this match, they overpowered two strong teams from Gladewater and Clyde. This gave them a ticket to the State Meet in Austin and tough competition. The boys lost their first match at State, but retired with an outstanding record.

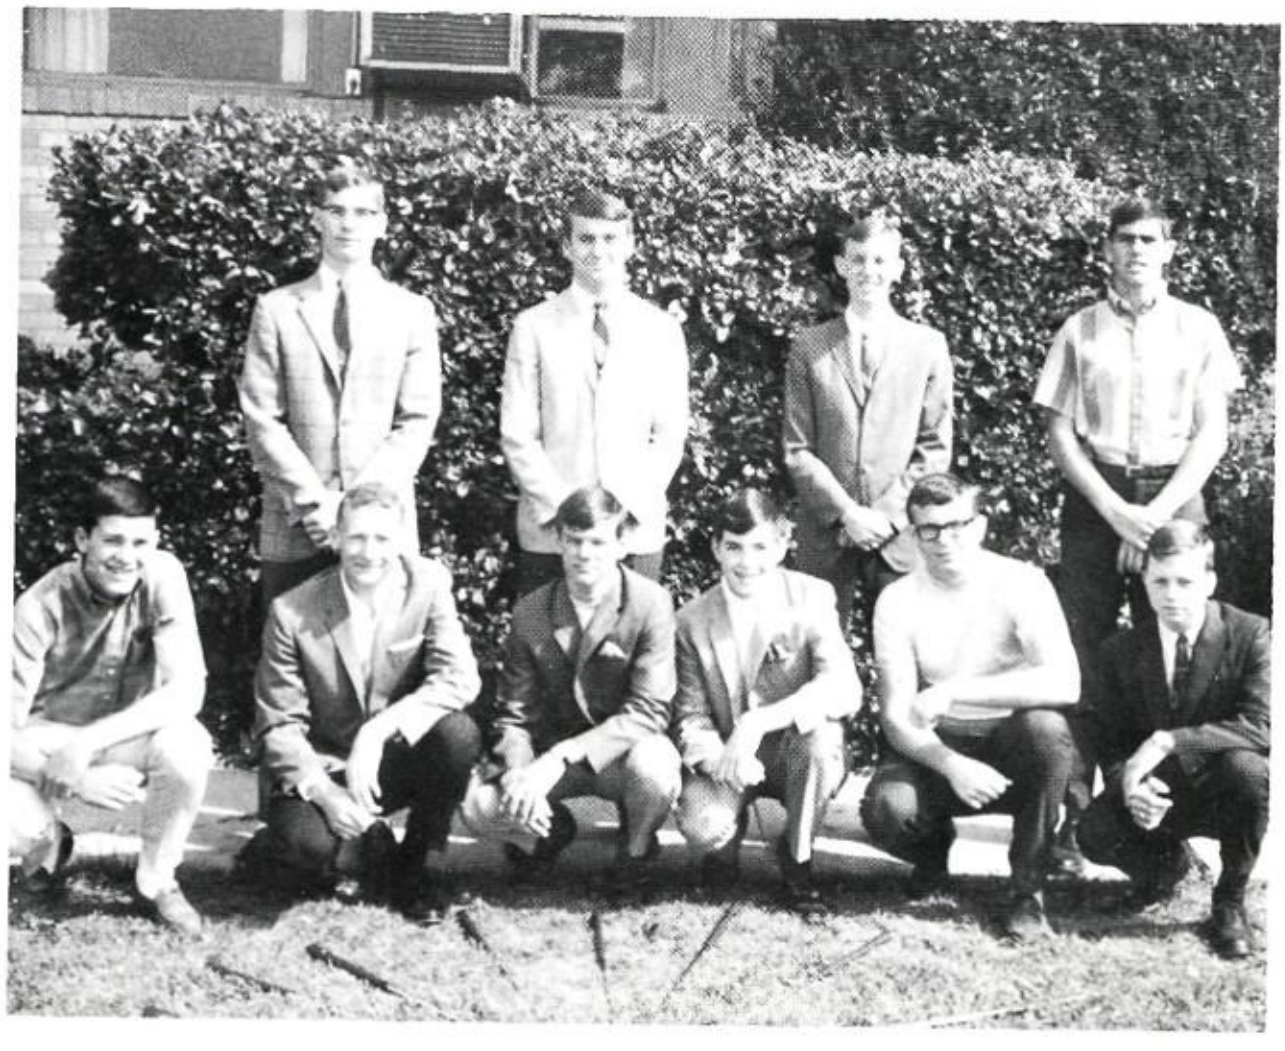
BI-DISTRICT CHAMPIONS. The team members were: Libby Fenoglio, Jachyllis Webb, Glenna Fenoglio, Betsy Keller, Karen Fuller, Patsy Widlake, and Cathy Fenoglio. The volleyball team captured the District title from Bridgeport and went on to defeat the tough Burleson team in Bi-District play.



GOLF

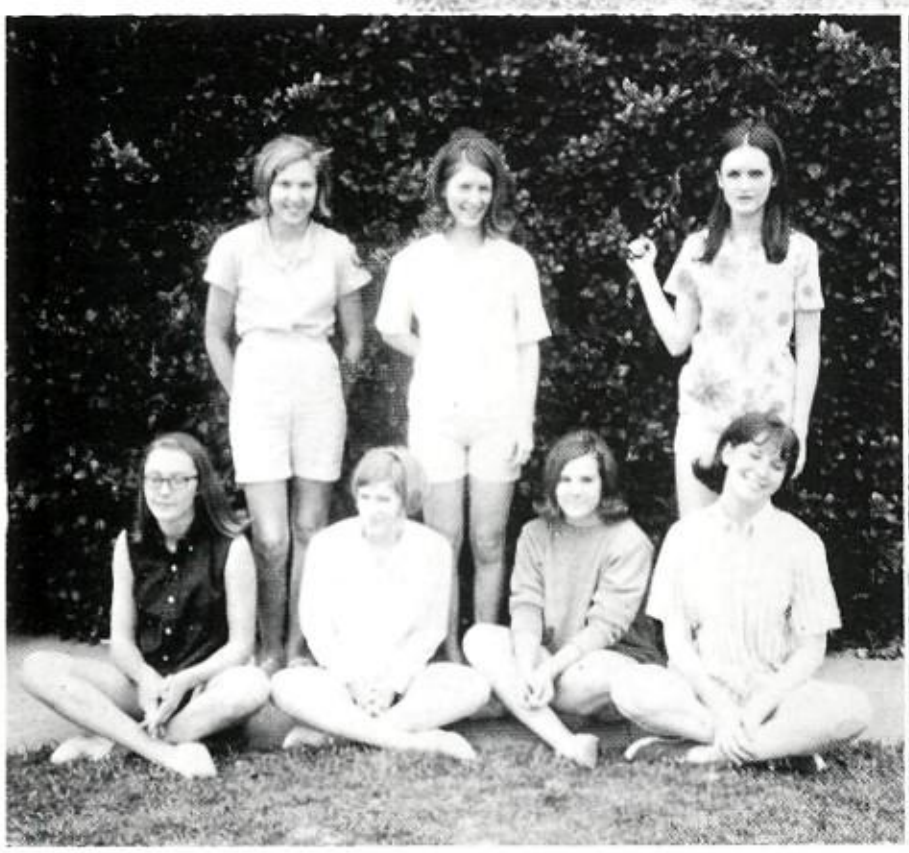
INTRA-MURAL VOLLEYBALL

The senior boys captured first after a tough game with the sophomores. Seniors are the GREATEST!

The junior girls were exhausted after their bout with the sophomores for first place.



Although the sophomores came in second, they were proud of the fact that they had beaten the "fish."

The sophomore boys also came in second and seem to be quite torn up about it.
